

DANCER IN THE SUN

We come along we bring the Kontrust on the run
With another song going like this
Watch! - Another da da dancer in the sun!
There's another one going my way!
You wanna these, and these, and these indeed?
Here's another one out on display!
You need a day, need another day, days and days to decide you're going my way?

you creep along the street, no idea what you need you never take a chance a lone wolf in a sense you never scream out, don't wanna be loud you stop before you start, you'd rather stay apart you hide your face scared of your mind you hide your face from the brighter side you hide your face but i know you'll open up your eyes

We come to you
We come to you

We come along we bring the Kontrust on the run
With another song going like this
Watch! - Another da da dancer in the sun!
There's another one going my way!
You wanna these, and these, and these indeed?
Here's another one out on display!
Take today, take another day, days and days to decide you're going my way you could do anything, you could be anyone you could go anywhere - no limits, only fun come on and take your chance - life is sweet romance get away from it all - lets party - start the show

I will show you - new dimensions

I'll realize your secret visions
If you give me all your fears you'll open up your eyes

We come to you
We come to you

We come along we bring the Kontrust on the run
With another song going like this
Watch! - Another da da dancer in the sun!
There's another one going my way!
You wanna these, and these, and these indeed?
Here's another one out on display!
You want days, want another day, days and days to decide you're going my way?

I don't need a reason
I won't take it down
I can see you falling
in a body to the ground
I don't need a reason
I won't take it down
I can see you falling
in a body to the ground

We come along we bring the Kontrust on the run
With another song going like this
Watch! - Another da da dancer in the sun!
There's another one going my way!
You wanna these, and these, and these indeed?
Here's another one out on display!
You got a day, got another day, days and days to decide you're going my way!
